

Women face a unique set of challenges when saving for retirement and building an income that lasts. With the Administration on Aging reporting that 70% of the seniors who live below the poverty level are women and the National Women's Law Center revealing that extreme poverty rates for women 65 and older rose 18% in 2012, these unique struggles aren't just a concern—they're practically an epidemic. Lets Talk Money provides advice for a new generation of women who want to build a strong, lasting income and buck the growing trend of poverty that threatens to derail all their retirement dreams. Filled with conservative, straight-forward information and ideas, Lets Talk Money allows women the opportunity to beat the odds and create a retirement income that lasts "for life.
