

Excerpt from Report on Condition of Woman and Child Wage-Earners in the United States, Vol. 9 of 19: History of Women in Industry in the United States: Sir: In partial compliance with the Senate resolution of May 25, 1910, I beg to transmit herewith a report on the history of women in industry in the United States. This report is the ninth section available for transmission of the larger report on the investigation carried on in accordance with the act of Congress approved January 29, 1907, which provided that the Secretary of Commerce and Labor be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to investigate and report on the industrial, social, moral, educational, and physical condition of woman and child workers in the United States wherever employed, with special reference to their age, hours of labor, term of employment, health, illiteracy, sanitary and other conditions surrounding their occupation, and the means employed for the protection of their health, person, and morals. The remaining sections of the general report are being completed as rapidly as possible and will each be transmitted at the earliest practicable moment. Sir: I beg to transmit herewith Volume IX of the report on woman and child wage-earners in the United States which relates to the history of women in industry in the United States. This is the ninth section transmitted of the report of the general investigation into the condition of woman and child workers in the United States, carried on in compliance with the act of Congress approved January 29, 1907. The preparation of this study is the work of Miss Helen L. Sumner. The work has been carried on under the direction of Chas. II. Verrill.
