

This statutory supplement is the most up-to-date statutory collection available for use in a consumer protection course or for practicing attorneys. The 2009 edition includes the Credit CARD Act of 2009, changes to Regulation Z, and other changes in the law since the 2007 edition, including measures issued in response to the economic crisis. It contains excerpts from the Consumer Credit Protection Act, the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act, consumer privacy and identity theft protections, residential real estate financing regulations, a sample of state consumer protection statutes, relevant international materials, and many other sources.
