

This book was written about the life of my mother, Mickie, in hopes that her life story would be an inspiration to all people from all walks of life. The life of my mother has been one tragedy after another; some of them almost cost her her life. The two obstacles that challenged her most of her life were the affliction of epilepsy and the abuse and neglect from her mother. She was determined to overcome challenges of learning how to walk, talk, read, write, and physically take care of herself when she was stricken with lock jaw, and being called stupid or dumb. She suffered emotional abuse from people she loved the most. Her story is a spiritual story of defying the odds, survival, and faith. She had a relationship with God her Father and Jesus her Healer. There is no way she could have survived the attacks on her life if God was not on her side. She is a miracle, an inspiration to all!
